

MANCHUS' FALL NEAR AMERICANS BARRED REBELS WIN SOCIETY

Abdication of Baby Ruler of China Decided; Yuan to Have Supreme Power

Fall of Manchu Dynasty Now Only a Matter of a Few Days—Deposed Regent and Fallen Premier, in Secret Conference, Draw Up Terms of Surrender.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD VIA COMMERCIAL CABLE COMPANY'S SYSTEM.]
HERALD BUREAU,
PEKIN, Monday.

Prince Pu-Lan is my authority for the statement that the abdication of the Emperor, Pu-Yi, is a matter of a few days at the most.

Prince Chun, the deposed Regent, and Prince Ching, the erstwhile Premier, were closeted this afternoon with Yuan Shih-kai, the Premier, discussing terms.

While the conference was strictly secret, it is understood the pro-gramme provides that Yuan and the members of the Cabinet shall tender their resignations, which have already been drafted. The Throne will not accept but will delegate the whole of the governmental authority to Yuan as peace-maker and then formally abdicate.

Yuan believes that with the Manchus eliminated he can reach an agreement with the revolutionists and prevent the splitting up of the country.

Many Manchus do not believe the abdication is impending, but the court and nobility are more concerned in saving their property than in the fate of the dynasty.

IMPERIAL ARMY NOW NEAR SIEN-FU

PEKIN, Monday.—The Kan-su Imperial army after much fighting has succeeded in pushing its way to within sixty miles of Si-an-fu, the capital of Shen-si Province. The entire province is in a state of turmoil. Many towns have been looted and abandoned.

The reported massacre of 10,000 Manchus by rebels in Si-an-fu is confirmed.

Yuan Shih-kai, who went to Si-an-fu in the providence of Shih-kai to rescue the women and children and children of the China Inland Mission, said today:

"The impression I got from the rebels was far from favorable. There was no responsible head and some twenty men in various kinds of uniforms had possession

FRANCE APPLAUDS HER NEW CABINET

Press and Public Commend Patriotism and Self-Sacrifice of the Ministers.

PARIS, Monday.—The readiness of such men as M. Léon Bourgeois, M. Aristide Briand, M. Théophile Delcassé and M. Alexandre Millerand to accept minor places in the Cabinet formed by Senator Raymond Poincaré has caused a profound impression in France. The fact of their acceptance of portfolios is generally regarded as a striking evidence of the solidarity, self-sacrifice and patriotism of Frenchmen at a time of national need.

The press of all shades of opinion to-day comments on the strength of the new Ministry. Even the monarchists Gaulois admits that it is the greatest Cabinet formed since the foundation of the third Republic.

A distinguished parliamentarian said today: "I regard this Cabinet, which contains the best of the men of the French nation, as the test of parliamentarism. If a Cabinet composed of such men is to be overthrown on some petty issue it will be a disgrace to the Republic."

Foreigners who are not familiar with France or with our form of government sometimes hastily conclude that the repeated ministerial collapses indicate the weakness of our belief in a Republic. Of course, this is entirely nonsensical. What it may mean, however, is that the time has arrived when we must seek some new form of governing the Republic.

PARIS OPERA BALLET GOES ON A STRIKE

PARIS, Monday.—The ballet at the opera went on strike to-night unexpectedly as the curtain was about to rise on the ballet "Roussalka," which followed the opera "Monsieur Vieux." The manager apologized to the audience, which left the building. The dancers demanded the dismissal of the unpopular members of the ballet, but the directors of the opera declined to accede to the demand.

THE SEINE RECEDING, FLOOD DANGER OVER

PARIS, Monday.—The Seine, which has been rising rapidly since December 30, threatening a repetition of the great floods of two years ago, began to fall again today, and the hydroelectric authorities consider that the danger of inundations is over for the present.

Joseph Conrad, the world's most famous writer of sea stories, has written especially for the NEW YORK HERALD a new novel called "Chance," which will be of peculiar interest to women. First chapters sent Sunday.

of the railroad station at Ching Heing-hen. On showing my passport and papers from the United States Legation written in Chinese I was escorted to the business quarters of the city.

"I saw many wounded soldiers of the rebel army. They had had no medical attention whatever and were tied up in racks of all descriptions."

On December 12 two trainloads of the "Dare to Die" battalion arrived, but they did not venture as far as Nian-Tsu-Kwan. After tearing up a lot of the rails and loading the house of the section foreman they raised their regimental flag and returned to Taiyuan-fu.

"All day long stragglers arrived at Yan Chang and we apprehended trouble, but a train came from Taiyuan-fu to meet them. Toward evening two of the stragglers fired their rifles near the station, and the men in the cars, supposing the imperials were on them, made a general scramble for the hills."

"The rebels complained that the range of their guns was too short and so they had to flee before the imperials. Some of their new recruits did not even know how to handle their rifles and others were armed with spears."

REBEL BATTALIONS EMBARK AT SHANGHAI

SHANGHAI, Monday.—Three cruisers and three transports, conveying three battalions of revolutionary infantry, eight machine guns and three mountain guns, left Shanghai to-day for Chi-fu, situated at the entrance to the Gulf of Pechili, 248 miles from Tien-tsin.

They are expected to arrive at Chi-fu on January 16, and 2,000 Russian troops will follow them on January 17.

The inhabitants of Chi-fu and its vicinity are said to show entire sympathy with the revolution. Republican flags are displayed everywhere and voluntary queue cutting has become general.

The United States cruiser Cincinnati as well as two Japanese cruisers are now lying in the harbor of Shanghai.

RESCUE MISSIONARIES IN SHEN-SI PROVINCE

The destination of the expedition is Shan-fu, in the Province of Shen-si, and the object is to rescue any foreigners who may be in the vicinity.

Captain Sowerby's relief party has brought in to the city of Ho-nan nineteen English Baptist missionaries and thirteen Swedish missionaries from Shan-fu.

A Rome despatch to the Daily Express says that Mr. Henry Labouchere is reported to be dying at his villa near Florence.

SIR HERBERT TREE'S MOVE STIRS LONDON

Titled Actor Widely Criticised for Taking a Music Hall Engagement.

LONDON, Monday.—The theatrical world here is surprised at the determination of Sir Herbert Tree to begin a music hall engagement on January 21, when he will play "The Man Who Was," a dramatization of Rudyard Kipling's story.

Sir Herbert will be the first titled actor to appear on the variety stage, and it is said that his colleagues, Sir George Alexander and Sir John Hare, regard the departure as beneath his dignity. Moreover Sir Herbert is chairman of the Theatrical Managers' Association, which has heretofore opposed the competition of the variety halls with the legitimate theatre. He is in fact led the movement.

Sir Herbert justifies his change of opinion by the recent action of the Lord Chamberlain in legalizing the production of sketches at the variety halls.

It is freely predicted that Sir Herbert's colleagues will show their resentment at his action by depositing him from the chairmanship of the Theatrical Managers' Association.

BRITISH SIGNS POINT TO GENERAL ELECTION

LONDON, Monday.—Talk is reviving regarding a general election in consequence of the differences among the members of the Cabinet on woman's suffrage and the difficulties besetting the Ministers in framing a measure of home rule acceptable to the Irish nationalists.

The insurance business against the recurrence of a general election is increasing at Lloyd's and to-day the rate jumped up to 2 1/2 per cent, compared with 1 1/2 per cent last week.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD VIA COMMERCIAL CABLE COMPANY'S SYSTEM.]
HERALD BUREAU,

Applications for presentations at this year's courts are so numerous that a new rule has been made by the Lord Chamberlain to the effect that women of other than British birth are not eligible unless married to British subjects or to diplomatic officials accredited to the Court of St. James.

This ruling no doubt will relieve pressure on the American Embassy, which always is overrun with applications from socially ambitious fellow countrymen and women.

The new vessel will be the largest battle ship hitherto constructed in England, displacing between 25,000 and 26,000 tons. Although the dreadnought cruisers of the Lion class are much larger, the new vessel will be slightly heavier, besides throwing heavier shells than her predecessors.

STRIKE ORDER LEADS AS MINERS BALLOT

LONDON, Monday.—Out of 350,000 ballots so far cast by the miners on the question of ordering a strike on March 1, 230,000 favored the action.

It is reported that the British government is making tentative arrangements to import American coal for the navy in the event of a strike.

The conference to-day between Sir George Asquith, representing the Board of Trade, and the will owners and their operatives, which it was confidently believed would lead to a settlement of the cotton dispute in which 250,000 men are involved, was again adjourned without an agreement having been reached.

BERLIN, Monday.—Captain Bernard Frederick French, of the British Royal Marine Infantry, who was found guilty of espionage upon the German fortifications at Borkum and sentenced in December, 1910, to four years' imprisonment in a fortress, attempted to hang himself yesterday, according to a despatch from Graetz.

Captain French was condemned with Lieutenant Vivian H. Brandon, of the British navy. They were arrested at Borkum, and after a short stay in a fortress, they were taken to a prison in Graetz.

Both men admitted at their trial that they had come to Germany to collect information which they intend to place at the disposal of the British government.

New Bill in the Diet Provides Imprisonment for Those Evading Payment.

BERLIN, Monday.—Tax dodgers in Prussia hereafter are threatened with a penitentiary term instead of a fine, according to the new Income Tax bill, which was introduced at the opening session of the Diet to-day. Another bill dealt with compulsory labor, to end the growing abuse of the pension laws by persons who refuse to work.

The liberals and radicals are now taking different courses in the re-ballooting. The radicals are still planning to cooperate with the socialists against the conservatives and centrists, but the liberals, hating the socialists more than they do their old enemies the right bloc, have declared against the socialists.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD VIA COMMERCIAL CABLE COMPANY'S SYSTEM.]
TEHRAN, Monday.—Major Preuss, an American officer of the Persian gendarmie, when riding from the barracks to his home was shot at, the bullet just missing him. The shot came from one of the houses close by.

No clue to the culprit has been obtained, but the Persian government and the American, British and Russian legations have been notified of the occurrence by Mr. F. E. Cairns, of the Treasury Department.

SAY AMERICANS WERE NOT MENACED

TEHRAN, Monday.—The Persian Cabinet, in its reply to the letter from F. E. Cairns protesting against the alleged threats made against him and the other Americans in the Treasury Department, maintains that it did not use threatening language in its message notifying him that Mons. Monod was to take charge of the department. The Cabinet says that the translation supplied to Mr. Cairns must have been inaccurate.

MR. SHUSTER UPHELD AT LONDON MEETING

LONDON, Monday.—A resolution, protesting against the British government's acquiescence in the Russian action in Persia was passed by acclamation at a crowded meeting in the opera house to-night called by the Persian Committee of the House of Commons.

Mr. James Ramsay MacDonald, M. P. for Leicester, the chief speaker of the evening, said that Mr. W. Morgan Shuster, the American Treasurer General of Persia, who was recently dismissed from office—the man who stood between Persia and dissolution—had been thrust out because the British Foreign Secretary, Sir Edward Grey, could be pushed, twisted, flattened or elongated, just as the Russians wished.

The Americans, said Mr. MacDonald, are beginning to ask whether all the international arbitration treaties are made between strong nationalities so that weak nations might be crushed out of existence.

OFFICER SERVED IN UNITED STATES ARMY

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD VIA COMMERCIAL CABLE COMPANY'S SYSTEM.]
WASHINGTON, D. C., Monday.

Lieutenant Major Preuss is an old soldier and was honorably discharged from the United States army. He also served in the Philippine constabulary.

AUSTRIAN FOREIGN MINISTER UNEASY

Count von Aehrenthal Reported To Be Anxious to Resign His Portfolio.

VIENNA, Monday.—Count von Aehrenthal, the Austro-Hungarian Minister of Foreign Affairs, it is positively asserted by Die Zeit, last week begged to be permitted to resign. The Emperor requested him to remain in office until March, but it is generally believed that he will insist upon his remaining until the end of the Turkish war. He will then be succeeded, according to the newspaper, by Count Berchtold, at one time Ambassador at St. Petersburg.

A sensation has been caused in political circles here by some recent speeches of Baron Fuchs, the Clerical leader, who declared that Italy is arming against Austria and when the war in Tripoli is over the King of Italy must either fight Austria or go into exile.

Baron Fuchs also insisted that the intimate relations which have for so long existed between Austria and Germany are becoming weaker as the result of Austria's failure to support her ally in the Moroccan crisis. He likewise complained that Austria's relations with the Russian Empire had not been well handled.

Baron Fuchs is said to have demanded an explanation from Count von Aehrenthal of the alleged differences between Austria and Germany, but the Foreign Minister maintained silence on the subject. Baron Fuchs therefore considered the character from above to an ice cream freezer. Mrs. Livingston Beckman and Mrs. Samuel M. Nicholson presided at the tea table.

To-night Mr. and Mrs. Beckman gave a dinner at their home for Miss Colt and her husband.

The Misses Dorothy and Louise Dempster gave a luncheon for seventy-five friends in Froebel Hall to-day.

The German Foreign Minister, Herr von Kiderlon-Waechter, is expected to reach Rome on January 20. His visit will not be accompanied by great festivities owing to the war, but King Victor Emmanuel will give a state dinner. In view of the fact that Germany is neutral, the visit of her Foreign Minister to Rome at this time is regarded as significant.
